“

As Christians, we recognize that the dangers of these climate impacts are as much of a spiritual crisis as it is an existential crisis. We have allowed a culture of greed to permeate the core values that are integral in our role as stewards of creation. For the sake of our ecology and the future of our Pacific, we strongly call on world leaders at COP26 to step up and strengthen their commitments towards securing global net zero and keeping 1.5 degrees well within reach.
