

Help Pakistan's flood survivors

Torrential rains have caused record flooding in Pakistan's Sindh province. 6.5 million people are affected and nearly two million homeless. Two million acres of crops have been damaged so far. CWS partners are already delivering food, water, shelter and other supplies to 48,000 highly vulnerable people in four districts. They are organising two mobile health clinics to treat water borne and other diseases as well as assisting pregnant mothers. Can you help them do more?
